1 MAN TERRENCE BREWER

Strong Brew Music is proud to release, on April 4, 2006, two full-length debut CD's from Guitarist and Composer Terrence Brewer. A musician for the last 20+ years, Brewer studied with legendary musicians/educators such as Charlie Hunter, Duck Baker, Mike Zilber, Mike Williams, and Mark Levine, to name a few. In addition, Brewer consistently performs at clubs and festivals throughout the San Francisco Bay Area and has played with artists including Pete Escovedo, Bruce Forman, Kim Nalley (production of "Lady Day in Love" by Courtney Brown) Kahlil Shaheed, Herb Gibson, Calvin Keyes, Ed Kelley, John Gove, Scott Amendola, Tuck and Patti, and many more. Brewer recently launched his own independent record label and self-produced two full-length CD's for that label... The Calling: Volume One and Volume Two.

The Calling: Volume One and Volume Two* contains 17 of Brewer's original compositions and features the playing of some of today's most talented young musicians.

Exotic Latin tinged and odd-meter grooves (Murray's Law, The Hands of Man) drive The Calling: Volume One, along with fiery up-tempo swing numbers (Dedication, Vari-8-Shun), and passionate ballads (The Way, Cat-Nap). In addition to Brewer on guitar, Volume One displays the talents of Ravi Abcarian (Kahlil Shaheed, Oaktown Jazz Workshop) on acoustic bass, Ben Stolorow (Oba Oba, Misturada, Kotoja) on piano, and Micah McClain (KeHoe Nation, Blackwell) on drums.

The Calling: Volume Two follows in the footsteps of the great guitar/organ/drum trios of the past, yet Brewer lends his own modern original twists to those familiar sounds. Volume Two begins with heavy backbeat funk (Lately), continues with scorching swing numbers (A.D.D., Sunrise Sunset), and balances out with powerful and bluesy ballads (Chrystal Clarity, Peaches and Cream). Volume Two features Brewer on guitar, long-time friend Derrek Phillips (Charlie Hunter Trio) on drums, Wil Blades (Mother Bug, O.G.D.) on Hammond B-3 Organ, and Eric Drake (Space Invaders) on tenor saxophone.

A promotional package with CD's is available upon request.
